Discover what healthy relationships means and how healthy relationships are important through reflection, research, and discussion. Complete these three activities:

 \square What healthy relationships mean to you

Create an art piece that shows what a healthy relationship means to you. You might write, draw, paint, or use pictures. Share your art with a trusted adult like your parent or Girl Scout Troop Leader.

 \square How adults describe healthy relationships

Chat with an adult about what a healthy relationship means to them. Tell them what you think and talk about if it's the same or different from their ideas.

☐ What friends think about healthy relationships

Chat with people your age about what a healthy relationship means. Make a list of qualities you think are important to have a healthy relationship. Share your list with a trusted adult.

CONNECT

Connect with with others through Girl Scout activities. Complete TWO of the activities below:

☐ Girl Scout Brownie Program

Earn Girl Scout Brownie Quest Journey, or the A World of Girls Journey award. Or Earn the Brownie Fair Play, Celebrating Community, My Best Self, My Family Story, or Making Friends badge. Tell your parent or Girl Scout troop how earning the award or badge helped you to be a good friend and create healthy relationships.

 \square Healthy Relationships Experts

Identify organizations that provide programs that help Girl Scouts to develop healthy relationships, and attend an event that focuses on developing healthy relationships. Go to girlscoutsoc.org/calendar to find and register for upcoming events.

☐ Our Global Network

Visit wagggs.org to explore the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts and earn the World Thinking Day Award, the Global Action Award, the International Friendship badge, the Action on Body Confidence badge, or even make a new friend through the WAGGGS Penpal Forum.

TAKE ACTION'

Now that you've had a chance to DISCOVER what a healthy relationship means and CONNECT with other Girl Scouts and through Girl Scout activities that help girls to develop healthy relationships, it's time to TAKE ACTION and share what you've learned with others! Complete one of the activities below:

 \Box Take Action to make a new friend

Talk to them about why you think healthy relationships are important. If they are not already a Girl Scout, invite them to become a member by joining your Girl Scout troop or registering as a Girl Scout Independent.

☐ Take Action to be kind

Check out the Orange County Department of Education's One Billion Acts of Kindness initiative at kindness1billion.org and participate individually or with your Girl Scout troop. (Optional: Contact the GSOC council shop for availability of One Billion Acts of Kindness patches.)

 \square Take Action to make a difference

Team up with your school or other organization to promote healthy relationships (and promote self-esteem and/or self-image) by tackling an issue such as bullying.
