EXAMPLE:

This committee was on task and cohesive from the beginning. The 2018 parade was the first time in several years Girl Scouts were represented in the City of HB July 4th parade and the committee had a goal to host a float in 2019. The girls wanted it and with the great communication, follow through, and hard work of this committee and several other troop volunteers, they were able to set a goal and achieve in a fashion that not only exceeded everyone's expectations, from keeping costs low to making areas of the event girl-led when possible. Overall, this event was fun for the girls. This committee was able to provide a fantastic event for over 75 girls who learned skills during the planning process.
