

2ND VICE CHAIR – LISA PERRINE, Ed.D.

Dr. Lisa Perrine’s career as an experience designer and organizational strategist spans 30 years and includes more than 1,000 consulting engagements. Unique in her commitment to co-creation, Lisa uses design thinking methods to engage her clients in creating innovative business strategies and implementing organizational change. Lisa’s recent clients include The Gates Family Office, PeaceHealth, University of California Irvine, and University of California San Francisco.

After earning an undergraduate design degree, Lisa began her career creating corporate communication environments. In 1991 she became the CEO of Cibola Systems, a systems integration firm in Southern California. She completed her MBA studies at Pepperdine University shortly thereafter. More recently Lisa earned a doctorate degree in Organizational Leadership at Pepperdine, where her research focused on multidisciplinary teams in healthcare environments.

Lisa is committed to supporting the underserved and vulnerable in her community. It’s her honor to have served on the boards of Mission Hospital, St. Joseph Hoag Health, St. Joseph Hospital, the Orange County United Way, the Girl Scouts of Orange County, and the School of Social Ecology at University of California, Irvine. She and her colleagues also volunteer their professional services for many Southern California charities.

DIRECTOR AT LARGE – DARLA HOLLAND, MD

Dr. Darla Holland is a Partner Emeritus with the Southern California Permanente Medical Group. Having earned her bachelor's degree from Texas A&M University and her medical degree from Baylor College of Medicine in Houston, she completed internal medicine residencies at the University of Maryland and the Boston Veterans Administration Hospital. Before joining Kaiser Permanente, she served on the faculty of Tufts Medical School, and had a solo private practice in Corpus Christi, Texas. Darla has practiced with the Kaiser Permanente since 1990. In addition to her clinical responsibilities, she has served as the President of the Orange County Medical Association, the Chair of its Physicians of Excellence and Legislative Committees and is a Delegate to the California Medical Association House of Delegates. Dr. Holland also is the past Chair the Regional Credentials Committee for Kaiser Permanente in Southern California. She is married to a retired urologist and has two adult children.

Dr. Holland enjoys spending time with her family and pets, a mixed breed dog named Teemu and a senior cat named George, and is a member of a book club. Her entire family loves to travel and are all big sports fans with a passion for the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim and the Anaheim Ducks. Darla likes to walk, play pickleball, and play Mah Jongg. She often volunteers to cook and serve for Mitzvah Meals, an organization that feeds the hungry in Orange County, and is a Court Appointed Special Advocate.

DIRECTOR AT LARGE – MICHIKO INANAGA

Michiko Miyaji Inanaga is a proud mom to 3 amazing children, all participating in scouting programs in Orange County. Her purpose in life is to contribute towards all children being compassionate and impactful leaders in society.

She previously was a leader of the troops her daughter was a part of at the Orange County Buddhist Church from Daisies to Cadettes. She stepped aside to take on the role of Board member at GSOC and has enjoyed her time helping to make an impact.

Professionally Michiko is currently the Director of Development at the Buddhist Churches of America Endowment Foundation, one of the only family focused national Buddhist organizations in the US with over 60 affiliate temples and fellowships. She also spent time developing resources for Keiro Senior Healthcare, the largest provider of retirement and end of life care especially designed for seniors in the Japanese American community.

Michiko is currently a Board Member of the Orange County Buddhist Church where she serves on the Youth Department. She relaxes by training for another half marathon while spending as much time with her high school and middle school kids as she can, before they leave the nest. She enjoys working with the GSOC leaders to support girls of all ages and backgrounds thrive and find ways to be their best selves.

DIRECTOR AT LARGE – SUSIE LÓPEZ-GUERRA, MEd

Susie López-Guerra, is a seasoned educator and visionary leader in public school education, boasting over 25 years of dedicated service. Born, raised, and currently residing in the City of Santa Ana, Dr. Susie López-Guerra is a first-generation, bilingual, and bicultural educator who has dedicated her life to transforming public school education through a lens of grace, humanity, inclusivity, and service. Currently at the helm as the California State Director for the National Center on Education and the Economy (NCEE), Dr. López-Guerra excels in forging vital partnerships across district, county, and state levels to disseminate NCEE's groundbreaking research to educational practitioners statewide.

Her rich career tapestry weaves through various critical roles in public education, including serving as the Director of Community Relations and Governmental Affairs, pioneering family and community engagement practice across one of the largest unified school districts in California, and crafting Pre-K-12 curricula.

Dr. López-Guerra's expertise as an educational researcher has seen her collaborate extensively across the U.S. and Mexico, bolstering professional learning for schools and leaders. She advocates for a reflective and research-based systems alignment approach, implementing best practices rooted in strong pedagogical and content knowledge. Her commitment to enhancing student outcomes is evident in her work, deeply rooted in reflective, research-based system alignment and pedagogical excellence. She is a founding member of the UCI-OC Alliance and co-chair of the Student Success Committee.

Dr. López-Guerra holds a Doctor of Education from the University of Southern California, a Master of Science in Education with an Administrative Credential, and a Multiple Subject Credential from California State University. She also has a Bachelor of Arts Degree in English Literature with a Minor in Spanish from the University of California, Riverside.

DIRECTOR AT LARGE – LILLEA ACASIO

Since 2018, Lillea’s passion for education and community impact, specifically for Orange County and Los Angeles County youth, has been reflected through her career and professional development with the Los Angeles Angels.

Lillea is currently in her second year as the Scholarship Programs Manager for the Los Angeles Angels. In this role, Lillea manages the Angels Baseball Foundation’s two scholarship programs, both of which financially support students advancing their education. Lillea started with the Angels Baseball Foundation as an intern and worked her way into a leadership position over the years, earning invaluable experience and connections along the way.

Prior to joining Angels Baseball, Lillea served as a Property Assistant at Meissner Jacquet Commercial Real Estate Services and an intern at LPL Financial. Combined with her B.S. in business administration and a minor in economics from Concordia University Irvine, Lillea is uniquely positioned to navigate the financial aspects of business and fundraising efforts.

Lillea’s passion for positive community impact is also reflected through her volunteer experience. Lillea is enthusiastic to support Girls Inc. of Orange County, volunteering her time to speak on career panels for young women. For the past five years, Lillea has also supported the Alzheimer’s Association. She is also proud to support the frequent community events led by Angels Baseball foundation, including Angels Scholars events, the annual Angel’s 5k, and Angels Kids Holiday Party.

As a Filipino-American woman, Lillea is a proud member of the Asian Pacific Islander (API) Sports and Entertainment organization which supports Asian American professionals in the industry.

DIRECTOR AT LARGE – JULIE FARBANIEC

In 2020, after almost 13 years at Blizzard Entertainment in various Learning & Development and Human Resources leadership roles, Julie founded her company, Leadership Enthusiast, a boutique firm offering leadership development and executive coaching services to companies wanting to invest in the growth of their people.

Julie’s primary passion is developing others. An expert facilitator, she incorporates heart, humor, curiosity, and strategic thinking in her approach to helping individuals and teams. She is known for her authenticity and ability to ask insightful questions that create “aha” moments in others. Highly consultative, her core strength is as a trusted coach and advisor. She listens keenly and applies useful frameworks to help her clients maximize capacity, minimize interference, and realize their potential.

Julie holds a bachelor’s degree in communications from New York's Hofstra University and a master’s degree in organizational leadership from Chapman University. She is also a certified executive coach which she earned via the esteemed Hudson Institute of Coaching. Outside of work, Julie loves hiking, soccer (Go Manchester United!), spending time with her nieces and nephews, and traveling the world with her husband, Jim.

She is beyond thrilled to have the opportunity to return to the Girls Scouts of Orange County Board of Directors. She currently serves on the Board Development Committee and is looking forward to helping further GSOC’s mission in 2024 and beyond.

DIRECTOR AT LARGE – SHARON KLEIN

Sharon R. Klein is a partner at the law firm of Pepper Hamilton LLP, where she advises clients on a variety of corporate and intellectual property matters, in particular, helping technology and outsourcing clients grow and succeed. She is the managing partner in charge of the firm’s Orange County office and holds leadership positions in the Privacy, Security and Data Protection; Digital Health; and Technology practice groups.

Sharon is a nationally recognized authority in the fields of health care technology and privacy, security and data protection. She is an active member of HIMSS (Healthcare Information and Management Systems Society) and a Certified Information Privacy Professional (CIPP/US). A pioneer in advancing the careers of women in the legal profession and health IT, Sharon began the women’s initiative of HIMSS and is involved in Pepper Hamilton’s Women’s Initiative. Her legal career, which spans nearly 40 years, began when she served as the first female law clerk for Judge William Ditter Jr. of the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Pennsylvania

Sharon is actively involved with her church, and through her service on the Board of a non-profit organization, helps to set a strategic direction for future growth.

Sharon grew up in Pennsylvania and now lives in Irvine, California. She was a Brownie and Girl Scout for 12 years and a top cookie salesperson. Her husband, Monty, is a Scout den leader and son, James, is in the process of earning the Arrow of Light Award to advance to Boy Scouts.