

Director at Large – Keri Bush

Keri Lynn Bush is a retired labor and employment litigator with more than 30 years of experience addressing workplace issues including discrimination, harassment, retaliation, wrongful termination, and defamation. Committed to mentorship and service, she found great fulfillment leading her firm's associate training program and providing pro bono support through the court's domestic violence clinic. She also volunteered extensively with DRI, the largest organization of defense counsel, where she served on the Board of Directors, chaired the Women in the Law Committee, and co-authored white papers addressing challenges facing women in the legal profession.

Keri earned her Juris Doctor from the University of the Pacific's McGeorge School of Law and studied pharmacy and business as an undergraduate at the University of the Pacific, with a concentration in alternative dispute resolution.

Raised in Maryland, Keri was a Girl Scout and credits that experience with shaping her leadership skills and ability to navigate complex challenges. She later served as a Junior and Cadette troop leader in Orange County and, upon retirement, became an independent volunteer supporting Girl Scouts of Orange County events.

In her free time, Keri enjoys singing in her community choir, supporting animal shelters, working state and federal elections, participating in local reforestation projects, attending Broadway musicals, and traveling.

Director at Large – Danielle Gilbert

Danielle Gilbert is a Principal Software Engineer and former Director of Software Engineering at Google, where she leads organizational strategy and product development for large-scale technical teams. A long-time Camp Scherman camper and counselor, Gold Award recipient, and MIT graduate, she holds a foundational understanding of the GSOC's opportunity to foster leadership and confidence in girls. Outside of her professional responsibilities, Danielle enjoys trail running, backpacking, and spending time with her dogs, cat, horse, and husband. She will bring an experienced perspective to the Board grounded in executive governance and principled commitment to challenging objectives.

Director at Large– Karen Caplan

Karen B. Caplan is a seasoned executive leader, board advisor, and executive coach with more than 30 years of experience building, scaling, and advising organizations. She is the former President and CEO of Frieda's Specialty Produce, where she led the family-owned consumer packaged goods company from regional prominence to national and international recognition.

Throughout her career, Karen has overseen strategy, operations, sales, marketing, branding, and organizational culture. She is widely respected for her people-centered leadership approach, her ability to navigate complex, multi-generational business dynamics, and her talent for developing leaders and strengthening organizational performance.

Today, Karen works as an executive coach and advisor, helping leaders make clear, confident decisions in complex environments. She brings deep governance experience, operational insight, and thoughtful judgment to her role as Director at Large.
