Girl Scout Week Faith Days

Girl Scout Week, celebrated annually during the week of Girl Scout Birthday on March 12, is a great time to celebrate with Catholic school and church communities! Girls can share about the Girl Scout Leadership Experience and its benefits, thank faith leaders for their support, and plan to be recognized as part of their Catholic school/parish/Diocese community as community leaders who make the world a better place.

Calling Girl Scouts to Celebrate Faith during Girl Scout Week, March 10-16, 2024!

- Connect with your parish/school faith community to plan a faith event to kick off Girl Scout Week on Girl Scout Sunday, March 10th
- Wear your Girl Scout uniform to celebrate Girl Scout Birthday with your parish/school community on Tuesday, March 12th
- Register to attend the council-wide Diocesan Mass and Awards Reception to wrap up Girl Scout Week on Saturday, March 16th

Girl Scouts of Orange County encourages girls and adults to use the Faith Program Toolkit to plan with school/church faith leaders to celebrate and plan faith events during Girl Scout Week in March and throughout the year.
