How can I get involved?

Be a champion for the Girl Scouts' Highest Awards: Bronze, Silver, and Gold. You can wear the beautiful Girl Scout Gold Award Alliance pin with pride, give a one time or annual gift to GSOC to help fund Highest Award expenses for girls in Orange County, and advocate, attend events, and volunteer with your troop, service unit, or council. Below are some ideas to get started in OC.

Advocate

- ☐ View the Girl Scouts of Orange County Highest Awards Yearbook to learn about OC Bronze, Silver, and Gold Award Girl Scouts.
- ☐ Encourage members of the Gold Award family and supporters to join the Alliance.
- ☐ Follow GSOC on social media and check out #gsGoldAward to see Girl Scouts nationwide.
- ☐ Join the Girl Scout Network on LinkedIn! Connect with Girl Scout alums to enhance your career, share your experiences, and join forces with like-minded women to affect change. Anyone who was a Girl Scout Daisy, Brownie, or higher is an alum and is welcome to join—whether you were a member for one year or ten, earned the Gold Award or not.
- ☐ Show the world you are a Gold Award Girl Scout and/or member of the Gold Award family: request your Digital Credential to share on social media.

Attend events

- ☐ Attend a Highest Awards ceremony to recognize girls in your community.
- ☐ Participate in the annual GSOC Recognition Event and talk to a Gold Award Girl Scout about how they tackled an issue to create sustainable change in their community.
- ☐ Be a spokesperson for Girl Scouts in your personal and professional life— with family and friends, community groups, organizations or businesses; share what Girl Scouts means to you, how girls change the world, and encourage them to get involved in Girl Scouts.

Volunteer

- ☐ Help plan a Highest Awards ceremony to recognize girls in your troop/service unit/region.
- ☐ Contact GSOC for help to coordinate recognition for Gold Award Girl Scouts in your city.
- ☐ Serve as a council trainer for the Bronze, Silver, or Gold Award.
- ☐ Guide a girl in your community as a Troop/Group Volunteer or Project Advisor.
- ☐ Become a member of the Girl Scout Gold Award Support Team to help girls “go gold.”
