Gold Award Project Support Meeting 3/01/26

This session is designed to help girls build confidence and gain helpful feedback as they prepare to submit their Gold Award project proposal. A member of the Girl Scout Gold Award Support Team will offer guidance and informal input on their Take Action project plan. Please note: this is not a substitute for the required interview or training.

Learn More!

Please note: this meeting is not intended to help girls identify an issue or develop a project from scratch. We recommend Girl Scouts take the Gold Award training before attending.
