

Stahr Amphitheater Ribbon Cutting Ash Ceremony

Camp Joe Scherman
October 28, 2023

Sharing ashes from one campfire to the next is a longstanding Girl Scout Tradition. Not all campfires share in this tradition, only significant ones such as the last night of camp or a campfire on an important occasion, like this one. When the ashes from the past are mixed with the new fire, the traditions and the history of the past are shared with the Girl Scouts of today. Once extinguished, each participant receives a small amount of the ashes to keep and to share at future campfires. They also receive a list of the many previous fires whose ashes were mixed into the newest campfire – the one they attended. The list will be included with your ashes. YOU are now part of this Girl Scout tradition.

These ashes have traveled over time and around the world. In 1926, Juliette “Daisy” Gordon Low used a candle to light the campfire at the World Encampment at Camp Edith Macy in New York. These ashes have journeyed to 55 countries, 35 US States, as well as Washington, DC, and Puerto Rico. These ashes have also traveled from each of the major Girl Scout Centers: Edith Macy Center (USA), Pax Lodge (England), Nuestra Cabana (Mexico), Our Chalet (Switzerland), and Sangam (India). Notably, these ashes also came from a fire in Canada lit in 1965 by Lady Baden-Powell (who with her husband, Lord Baden-Powell founded the Girl Scout/Boy Scout Movement in England.)

We hope you will treasure your ashes from today celebration of the Stahr Amphitheater. Girl Scouts’ tradition of sharing history and the many cultures from which they come is an important part of our history. In the future, it will be your turn to share these ashes and this tradition with other Girl Scouts. Remember the campfires in the many foreign countries and US states from which these ashes came from. Girl Scouting is full of history and tradition that will continue because of YOU and your support of Camp Scherman and Girl Scouts of Orange County.
