Yes! You do not have to worry about getting your own reservation! Every ticket registered with this event will include a reservation for the event day, starting in California Adventure, with the ability to change parks.

Does my whole troop need to attend for my daughter to go?

You are encouraged to attend this event even if only a few girls, or one girl, from your troop wants to go. Whole troops are also welcome. Troops and individuals are responsible for appropriate adult-girl ratios. This is not a drop-off event; must limit adult registration to 2-3.
