Monthly Community Service Opportunities and Take Action Inspiration for Girl Scouts

JUNE Year of Service: DREAM kitten rescue

The mission of D.R.E.A.M. is to help any and every animal that needs assistance in finding a new, loving home. Girls will make toys for rescue kittens, provide needed supplies and share what they learn to support fur-ever homes for kittens. Making the world a better place for animals and people is what Girl Scouts are all about!

Wednesday, June 29, 2022 from 4-5 pm; virtual zoom
$5 each OC Girl Scout*; all ages

- GSOC Year of Service patch, including the June tab, will be mailed to you!
- Informative guest speaker from D.R.E.A.M. about kitten rescue!
- Inspirational Gold Award Girl Scout inspiring you to take action to protect animals!
- Impactful service project to support kittens in the rescue centers!

GSOC Year of Service monthly community service opportunities are designed for you & your family to make the world a better place, from your home to your community, because community service is what Girl Scouts do. No matter what.

- Collect all 12 month tabs by attending a Year of Service event every month
- Did you miss a month in 2021? You can attend that month event in 2022!
Month tabs do not have to be earned in the same calendar year.
- See upcoming Year of Service events at girlscoutsoc.org/calendar
- Have an idea for a Year of Service event? Email your idea to Shellie Massick at smassick@girlscoutsoc.org to discuss when to feature your agency, activity idea and/or Girl Scout award project!
