

Four focus areas of the GIRL SCOUT LEADERSHIP EXPERIENCE

Girls gain important skills in four focus areas that form the foundation of the Girl Scout Leadership Experience - STEM, Outdoors, Life Skills, and Entrepreneurship.

When they explore these vital areas, Girl Scouts unleash their inner G.I.R.L. (Go-getter, Innovator, Risk-taker, Leader)™!

STEM: When Girl Scouts participate in girl-focused STEM programs, they:

- Become better problem solvers, critical thinkers, and inspirational leaders
- Get better grades, earn scholarships, and follow more lucrative career paths
- See STEM as the foundation for a meaningful and successful future

Outdoors: When Girl Scouts get outside, they:

- Discover that they can better solve problems and overcome challenges
- Develop leadership skills, build social bonds, and are happier overall
- Become team players and care more about protecting our environment

Life Skills: When Girl Scouts explore civic engagement, community service, and healthy relationships, they:

- Practice communication and form stronger bonds with family, friends, and their communities
- Foster self-esteem and feel empowered to advocate for themselves and others as they make a difference in the world by “giving service” and taking action
- Learn how to recognize and deal with bullying/relational aggression, develop healthy relationships, make friends, and practice people skills

Entrepreneurship: When Girl Scouts practice entrepreneurship through the Girl Scout Cookie Program, they:

- Gain essential life skills and work as a team to accomplish common goals and solve problems, while building the confidence they need to shine as girls, as young women, and as future leaders
- Develop five lifelong financial literacy and entrepreneurship skills: goal setting, decision making, money management, people skills, and business ethics
