

Troop Group Travel

Traveling offers vast opportunities for girls to develop leadership skills. Girl Scouts travel is built upon a progression of activities and girl-led processes. Girl Scout Daisies, for example, can begin with a discovery walk planned by the leaders. By the time the girls are Cadettes or older they are able to plan their own national and international travel!

Choose the “Travel” option OR three or more “travel preparation” activities.

Travel

Complete a level 2 or 3 travel experience. See the travel progression chart at girlscoutsoc.org/travel for a description of the different levels in travel progression.

Travel preparation

Choose three or more:

- Interview an older Girl Scout about their travel adventures.
- Make a food, craft or a piece of art from another country.
- Visit a campsite of an older Girl Scout troop during a campout.
- Complete a requirement from the Girl Scout Safety Award for your level.

CONGRATULATIONS!

You have earned your Global Girl Scout Patch!

Now that you’ve completed all three steps you can bring this signed booklet to the Girl Scout Shop and purchase the GSOC Global Girl Scout Patch.

For Shop hours and locations go to girlscoutsoc.org/shop.

Global Awareness

Every Girl Scout is part of a special group of girls that stretches not just across the United States, but around the world. Girl Scouts of the USA (GSUSA) is a member of the World Association of Girl Guides and Girl Scouts (WAGGGS), which includes 10 million girls in 150 countries. All those girls, in all those countries, are working to make the world a better place. Raise your global awareness with these three activities:

World Thinking Day (Required)

With an adult, go to girlscouts.org/worldthinkingday to find out about this year's World Thinking Day Award. Choose one activity that you can do to get started and list it here:

International Friends (Required)

With an adult, go online to find out about Juliette Gordon Low. She had friends in another country who helped to make the world a better place. Who was her friend and what did this friend inspire her to do?

Choose one or more:

Complete a badge activity from the Civic Engagement badges on girlscouts.org/badges.

Attend a World Thinking Day event. What is something interesting you learned?

Who or what do Girl Scouts "think" about when we celebrate World Thinking Day?

Color a picture of the World Trefoil Pin using blue and yellow colors. Do you have this pin on your uniform?

What is W.A.G.G.S., and what does it stand for?

Global Citizen

Global means relating to the whole world. A global organization is worldwide and international, and from the beginning, the Girl Guide and Girl Scout Movement has been international in nature. Become a more global citizen with these activities:

Global Action Days (Required)

With an adult, use the Volunteer Toolkit online, or another source to find the Global Action Days toolkit. Choose one activity that you can do to get started and list it here:

Choose one or more:

Learn about and contribute to the Juliette Gordon Low World Friendship Fund.

What is the United Nations and how many members does it have?

Do an activity from a petal or badge with international component. See a list of badges online, on the Badge Explorer at girlscouts.org/badges You're on your way to earning this badge!

Participate in a World Thinking Day event. What did you do?

Learn about the world through the arts, storytelling, costume or music.

Look Wider Still

There is always more to explore when you go global! This section will lead you to the next step in Girl Scouting, and in yourself!

"Look wide, and even when you think you are looking wide - look wider still." - Robert Baden-Powell

Travel Plans (Required)

List places that you can travel with Cookie Program and Fall Product Program proceeds:

Choose one or more:

Learn about the San Francisco bridging event. Plan to attend when you are a Girl Scout Junior!

With an adult, go online to take a virtual tour of the United Nations at un.org.

Brownies, take a trip outside of your own city with the GSOC Travel Patrol! You can travel to Olvera Street, in Los Angeles or to San Diego Zoo in San Diego! Go to girlscoutsoc.org/travel for information.
