

GIRL SCOUT WEEK!

2021

March 7-13, 2021

Celebrate Girl Scout Week

Each year, Girl Scout Week is celebrated in March to align with Girl Scouts' birthday on March 12. Girl Scouts has longstanding traditions of celebrating with faith communities during this week. We do this to share information about Girl Scouts and its benefits, to thank faith partners and adult volunteers for the support they have provided over the past year, and to give girls the opportunity to be recognized in their places of worship as Girl Scouts. Celebrations with faith communities typically include participation in worship services and pre- and/or post-events with the faith community. They can also include community service projects. Partnering with faith communities exposes more people to the benefits of Girl Scouts, strengthens relationships with faith leaders and adult volunteers, shows girls how to connect the principles of Girl Scouting to their faith, and builds the Movement's diversity.

Girl Scout Week faith observances can be celebrated by any faith group. In general, Jewish Sabbath (Shabbat) extends from sunset on Friday to sunset on Saturday, the Christian holy day is Sunday, and the Muslim holy day is Friday. In 2021, the celebration dates for these faith traditions are:

- Girl Scout Sunday (Christian)—Sunday, March 7, 2021
- Girl Scout Jummah (Muslim)—Friday, March 12, 2021
- Girl Scout Sabbath/Shabbat (Jewish)—
Friday/Saturday, March 12–13, 2021

GIRL SCOUT PROMISE

On my honor, I will try:
To serve God and my country,
To help people at all times,
And to live by the
Girl Scout Law.
