Awardees will be published in a GSOC publication.

EXAMPLE:

Lisa has been instrumental to the membership success of Buena Park over the last two years. Her record keeping and diligence have ensured that all participating girls and adults are registered. Lis regularly updates the SU Team with accurate troop rosters including listing which troops are at capacity and which troops are accepting new girls. This has helped me identify areas of focus as well as create a SU Shutterfly account so that the leaders can access information and communicate among themselves. In addition, Lisa is attentive to customer service and responding to Council staff.
